Information for returning commuting students

The College is pleased to welcome you back to campus. We hope that you can join us at the campus wide events before the first day of classes!

Have you completed, returned, and received permission to live off-campus for the 2018-2019 year?

If you have not, please go to this link to download, complete, and return your form (and other additional documents) as soon as possible. You can find this form at this link

Spirit & Traditions Kick Off Event to First Week

The Spirit & Traditions Kick Off, to start First Week will be held on Saturday, August 25, 2018, on the residential quad. This festive event will celebrate all things that make LaGrange College such a special place. All students, faculty/staff, faculty/staff families are encouraged to join us for what promises to be a memorable evening of fun, food, games, and entertainment.

General Questions

First Week activities, orientation, and housing are all overseen by the Division of Student Engagement at the College. If you have any questions regarding these events or programs at the College prior to your arrival, please feel free to contact Brian Carlisle, Vice President for Student Engagement, at bcarlisl@lagrange.edu.

Prior to coming to campus

We encourage you to review the following helpful Websites prior to coming to campus:

Student Housing (<http://www.lagrange.edu/campus-life/housing/index.html>)

- From here, you can access your hall's floor plan and gain information about your room; we have also included suggested items to bring with you, as well as restrictions on your space.
- For a general idea of the college's rules, prohibited items in your residence hall room, etc. feel free to refer to the link for the college student handbook from the 2017-2018 year (http://panther.lagrange.edu/pdf/student-engagement/2017-2018_StudentHandbook.pdf). Please be aware that the college student handbook is updated each year and will be announced via email the beginning of the Fall 2018 semester.
